Green Living is Suite!

Did you know that on April 10th 2009, Suite Ta Bu officially became the worlds first US based, person of color owned, edgy, eco-boutique? WE'RE OPEN and ready to serve our guests! Join the eco-movement, we're your all access pass to the green life, especially for those of you who are eco-fashion conscious." The Suite has an array of indulgences such as, décor, bedding made from raw silk, textiles, repurposed vintage silverware fashioned into jewelry, freshwater pearls and organic body care. We offer to our guests many things, the most important being a new take on FRESH.

Our Mission:

To lead the way in defining edgy, eco-friendly, international style while respecting our beautiful earth.

What is Suite Ta Bu? We're the Answer. Especially for our savvy guests who often seek quality, eclectic merchandise to enhance relaxation or to accent their home space. We offer accent pieces that are the perfect compliment to your home décor, art collection and wardrobe. Our lifestyle "guest" profile includes both men and women who are active citizens, and creative thinkers that conscientiously craft their images. Our guests are the leaders of the free world and they make positive statements with their purchasing power.

Our "discoveries" are often the brain children of "on the rise designers" and unboxed "creatives". Suite Ta Bu is multicultural and unisex, a brand geared towards those that aspire to a greener life. Our eco-boutique offers the US based "global citizen" alternative inventory which includes eco-friendly apparel, textiles, wellness and aromatherapy products, art, apparel, organic skin care and "indulgences". Our flair is ostentatious, our offerings are well thought of and we are positioned to redefine the green lifestyle.

Join the movement.
